What Does High Impact Family Engagement Look Like in Middle and High Schools?¹

Higher Impact onstudent learning/success	Moderate Impact	Lower Impact
Transition program – eventsat feederschools,tours of new school,4-week HSprep summer course – welcomesfamilies: Convey college/career prep focus your student will graduate in 4 years with college acceptance letter mand Relate academic programs toareers Prepare students for high schoowork Help families construct their role insupporting their students' success	Fall Family Academy to orient incoming families to expectations of students, such as attendance requirements and credits needed for graduation.	At freshman orientation, parents can pick up their students' classschedules and bus passes, and tour the school.
Workshops forfamilies: Coursesneededto graduateand go to college/post-secondaryeducation What high-level academicwork looks like at eachgradelevel Where to get needed help fostudents Tests applications and timelines required forcollege	Staff conduct trainings for families to help them understand how to navigate the requirements of high school. information about	Information sheets about school programs and

|--|

- 6. Parent organization and leadershipepresent all families in the school.
 - Parentleaderssit on collegepathways and school leadership teams
 - Parent organization does focus groups with families to surface issues and report back tschoolleadership

Homework help and mentoring program to ensure families know about and can access