The Big Six Literacy Pillars	NYS Prekindergarten - 3rd Grade Literacy Instructional Best Practices	Grades
Phonemic Awareness	‡Develop awareness of the segments of sound in speech. ‡Teach students to manipulate sounds in speech, focusing on orally blending and segmenting words.	‡PreK-1 ‡K-1
Phonics	<ul> <li>‡Teach students letter-sound relations.</li> <li>‡Introduce letters (graphemes) with the sounds (phonemtbe) make.</li> <li>‡Provide opportunities to practice letter identification dsounds.</li> <li>‡Use word- µ]o ]w P}šZ SE Å]Š] • Š} o]vI •е }v(š•§šso QE Åt celationships with phonemic awareness.</li> <li>‡Develop an awareness of segments of sounds in spared how they correspond to letters.</li> <li>‡Teach students to decode words, analyze words andwrite and recognize words.</li> <li>‡Teach students to lend letter sound sound-spelling patterns.</li> <li>‡Teach common sound-spelling patterns.</li> <li>‡Teach students to recognize common word parts.</li> </ul>	<pre>‡PreK-3 ‡PreK ‡PreK ‡K  ‡K-1 ‡1-3 ‡2-3 ‡2-3 ‡2-3</pre>
Vocabulary	‡Plan activities to expansind practice vocabulary ‡Introduce wordsand their meanings. ‡Engage students in activities to enhance vocabulandylanguage skills. ‡Teach vocabulary in the context other reading activities. ‡Facilitate activities that actively engage students in the develop rofethiteir vocabulary and language skills. ‡Teach students academic language is, including the use finferential language and vocabulary knowledge	‡PreK-3 ‡PreK-3 ‡PreK-3 ‡PreK-3 ‡K-1