The plan must be reviewed by the district-wide school safety team at least annually and updated as necessary

The Building-Level Emergency Response Plan must include the following elements:

Policies and procedures for response to emergency situations, such as those requiring evacuation, sheltering, and lockdown. These policies shall include at a minimum evacuation routes, shelter sites, and