Before You View the Webinar

Before you view this webinar, you might discuss the following questions as a means of reflecting on prior knowledge and introducing the webinar's subject matter. These questions may be discussed in small or large groups.

1. What do you already know about vocabulary development and standards-based teaching?
2. What are some of the ways in which you currently have your students engage in learning vocabulary?
3. What are you wondering about vocabulary development and standards-based teaching?

As You View the Webinar

As you view this webinar, here are some possible discussion questions and tasks that you may want to have participants to carry out to build capacity, assess progress on the four goals. It would be most helpful to address these discussion questions and tasks at the end of their respective sections of the webinar. You may also choose to pause and address any of the questions asked by the presenter in order to assess prior knowledge and current understandings.

Goal 1: I can identify what it means to “know” vocabulary.

Minutes 4:13-12:10

Discussion Questions

- ‘ Reflect on what knowing a word means.
- ‘ Discuss how knowing a word is a multi-part task. Provide examples relevant to the level(s) you teach
- ‘ Discuss the difference between incidental and intentional vocabulary learning

Tasks

- ‘ Summarize how the three categories of vocabulary are emphasized in your current vocabulary instruction. Identify goals you may have for redistributing that emphasis

Goal 2: I can plan for vocabulary development through classroom communication.

Minutes 15:56-27:29

Discussion Questions

- ‘ Reflect on the strategies that you currently incorporate into your instruction to make new vocabulary comprehensible to your students.
- ‘ Discuss how the practices associated with High-Leverage Teaching Practice #1 simultaneously facilitate target language comprehensibility and promote learners' vocabulary development.

Tasks

- ‘ With a partner, practice “Creating Comprehensible Language” that facilitates vocabulary learning in a meaningful context. Use some or all of the practices listed on slide 18.
- ‘ In small groups, identify visuals and/or concrete objects you could use in “Creating Contexts with ELD 5
